DEDICATION

Praise and thanks to Ida Sang Yang Whidi Wasa, for all the blessings that have given the author patience, health, and enthusiasm in writing this thesis. He is the guide, and without His grace, this achievement would not have been possible. Therefore, the author proudly and happily expresses his gratitude. I dedicate this work to:

1. To my beloved parents, who always accompany me with your prayers in every step of my journey and whose sacrifices never cease. Thank you, Mom and Dad, for your patience and support. You are the main reason why I am able to fight to get to this point.
2. To my beloved family, who always guides and supports me, prays for me, and helps me every step of the way.
3. To my beloved alma mater, where all these processes and stories began, may this work be a token of my devotion and bring benefits to future generations.
4. To myself, thank you for persevering this far, even though I often felt tired and doubted whether to give up. However, this journey is proof that you can overcome this, challenging your limitations. This thesis is proof that every effort, no matter how small, is not in vain.
5. Lastly, to my friends, Eka and Anita, thank you for always being there every step of the way. Your support, laughter, and companionship have always been there. You are an important part of this struggle.
